And there are...components to that purpose, one is to find out who you really are, to discover God, the second is to serve other human beings...”

Dear Sister Links

I grew up in Roxbury, with three sisters and two brothers, all of whom are college graduates, living and spread across North America, with three of the six living right here in Massachusetts. My mother died in 2017 at 96 years and my father unfortunately died of a heart attack at home at 49 years old.

I graduated from Boston College in 1972, the same year in which I married my husband, Richard, who graduated from BU in 1971. My husband studied at Oxford in 1971 and I joined in the year I graduated, that September, 1972. We returned to Boston in 1973, both attending graduate school. I attended Lesley University and Harvard Graduate School of Education. I also worked full time as a teacher of special needs in the Medford Public school system. Shortly thereafter, I joined the Suffolk County legal system as a probation officer in Probate Court, child custodies, and GAL (Guardian Ad litem).

I made a strategic change in careers as my interest grew into the marketing and sales profession. After working in Mayor Kevin White’s administration in marketing went into broadcast sales spending 17 years working at WBZ and then 12 years heading up the WGBH Educational Foundation Corporate Development department. I was consistently recognized as a high achiever with respect to revenue and new accounts. My recognition Awards were local, regional and national.

Currently, as a professional I am assisting in immigrant high school seniors’ access to college through a federal program called GEARUP.

I serve in many philanthropic endeavors, including being a trustee of the Oak Bluffs Public Library on Martha’s Vineyard.

I have enjoyed the social, civic and philanthropic arms of our beloved chapter. I have also enjoyed being Chairperson, several times, of our Corporate outreach committee for many of our fundraisers. In addition, I have served as Chair of programs and been active in many facets of our activities. Above all I have enjoyed the times I have spent with you as a group and individually. In particular I have appreciated getting to know many of you in our Martha’s Vineyard retreat having offered my home for Link activities during these occasions. We are blessed as a chapter where sisterhood exists, camaraderie is cheerful with strong active member participation.

My husband Richard and I are the proud parents of Caroline and Randall and grandparents of Tyler 12 and Logan 8 who reside in Sarasota Florida, with Caroline and her husband Brian and two dogs, Beau and Baily. We live in Newton and summer on the beautiful island of Martha's Vineyard.

Warmly and most sincerely,
Link Kathy
